Ἐσφραγισμένου τοῦ μνήματος, ἡ Ζωὴ ἐκ τάφου ἀνέτειλας Χριστὲ ὁ Θεός, καὶ τῶν θυρῶν κεκλεισμένων, τοῖς Μαθηταῖς ἐπέστης, ἡ πάντων ἀνάστασις. Πνεῦμα εὐθὲς δι’ αὐτῶν ἐγκαινίζων ἡμῖν, κατὰ τὸ μέγα σου ἔλεος.

Hymn of the Feast

Χριστὸς ἀνέστη ἐκ νεκρῶν, θανάτῳ θάνατον πατήσας, καὶ τοῖς ἐν τοῖς μνήμασι, ζωὴν χαρισάμενος.

Small Entrance Hymn

Ἐν ἐκκλησίαις εὐλογεῖτε τὸν Θεόν, Κύριον ἐκ πηγῶν Ἰσραήλ. Σῶσον ἡμᾶς Υἱὲ Θεοῦ, ὁ ἀναστὰς ἐκ νεκρῶν, γάλλοντάς σοι, Ἀλληλούϊα.

In the congregations bless God, the Lord, from the springs of Israel. Save us O Son God who did Rise from the dead. We sing to You Alleluia.

Kontakion

Εἰ καὶ ἐν τάφῳ κατῆλθες Ἀθάνατε, ἀλλὰ τοῦ ᾅδου καθεῖλες τὴν δύναμιν καὶ ἀνέστης ὡς νικητής, Χριστὲ ὁ Θεός, γυναιξὶ Μυροφόροις φθεγξάμενος, Χαίρετε, καὶ τοῖς σοῖς Ἀποστόλοις εἰρήνην δωρούμενος, ὁ τοῖς πεσοῦσι παρέχων ἀνάστασιν.

Though Thou didst descend into the grave, O Immortal One, yet didst Thou destroy the power of Hades, and didst arise as victor, O Christ God, calling to the myrrh-bearing women, Rejoice, and giving peace unto Thine Apostles, O Thou Who dost grant resurrection to the fallen.

Megalynarion Hymn

Σὲ τὴν φαεινὴν λαμπάδα, καὶ Μητέρα τοῦ Θεοῦ, τὴν ἀρίζηλον δόξαν, καὶ ἀνωτέραν πάντων τῶν ποιημάτων, ἐν ὄμνιοις μεγαλόνομεν.

Allegro \( \text{\textbf{150}} \)

Whilst the tomb was sealed, Thou, O Life, didst shine forth from the grave, O Christ God; and whilst the doors were shut, Thou didst come unto Thy disciples, O Resurrection of all, renewing through them an upright Spirit in us according to Thy great mercy.

Final Ending

according to Thy great mercy.
When they who were with Mary came, anticipating the dawn, and found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre, they heard from the Angel: Why seek ye among the dead as though He were mortal man? Him Who abideth in everlasting light? Behold the grave-clothes. Go quickly and proclaim to the world that the Lord is risen, and hath put death to death. For He is the Son of God, Who saveneth the race of man.
In those days, many signs and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. None of the rest dared join them, but the people held them in high honor. And more than ever believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women, so that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and pallets, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed. But the high priest rose up and all who were with him, that is, the party of the Sadducees, and filled with jealousy they arrested the apostles and put them in the common prison. But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out and said, "Go and stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life."
On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in His side, I will not believe.

Eight days later, His disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see My hands; and put out your hand, and place it in My side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas answered Him, "My Lord and My God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen Me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing, you may have life in His name.

PRAYERS FOR HEALTH

PRAYER FOR CATECHUMEN

O Lord our God, who dwellest on high and regardest the humble, who has sent forth as the salvation of the race of men Thine only-begotten Son and God, our Lord Jesus Christ: Look down upon Thy servants the Catechumens, who have bowed their necks before Thee; make them worthy in due season of the laver of regeneration, the forgiveness of sins and the robe of incorruption. Unite them to Thy holy, catholic and apostolic Church, and number them with Thine elect flock: That with us they may glorify Thine all-honorable and majestic name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

What is Orthodox Christian Stewardship?

“It is by offering our blessings back to God that He will be able to continue His forgiving, healing, liberating, empowering, transfiguring, loving ministry through the Church. For God, infinite though He be, has chosen to work through us, through our gifts, to continue His saving work in the world today.” -Fr. Anthony Coniaris Orthodox Christian stewardship is a way of life, which acknowledges accountability, reverence, and responsibility before God. A primary goal of stewardship is to promote spiritual growth and strengthen faith. Becoming a steward begins when we believe in God, to whom we give our love, loyalty and trust and act on those beliefs.

As stewards, we affirm that every aspect of our lives comes as a gift from Him. Stewardship calls on the faithful to cheerfully offer back to God a portion of the gifts with which they have been blessed.

An Orthodox Christian steward is an active participant in the life of the Church. The parish encourages all who accept the Orthodox Faith to become practicing stewards. Each year the steward is expected to carefully review his or her personal circumstances and make a commitment of time, talent, and treasure to support the Parish and her ministries, which in turn support the National Ministries of our Archdiocese, Metropolises and institutions.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry team at Transfiguration would like to invite anyone who knits or crochets (or both) to be part of this new ministry. Prayers Shawls console in times of illness, grief, and stress. They comfort those who are ill, and bring hope to those who are in despair. They remind us that God’s love is with us always and that each of us also remains in the hearts and prayers of others. The shawls are crafted with the love and prayers of the individual who knitted or crocheted it.

If you are interested in joining this new ministry, please contact Sue Holland or Julie Wynn so we can provide you with the patterns.

We aren’t just looking for people who crochet or knit! If you feel called to support this ministry in other ways, please let us know. You can contact Julie Wynn at twynn@gmail.com or Sue Holland at susanstevens.holland@outlook.com

Subject: New Mount Tabor Community Center

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

It’s been so very exciting to see the continued construction progress of our new community center. Thank God for all of you who have so generously shared your Time, Talent, and Treasure to make our “Dream a Reality”!

Now we need to respond with the same level of commitment to Phase 2 of the project.

Phase 2 includes upgrading the detention pond, repurposing the current septic system for the sanctuary, and razing Mt. Tabor Hall to put in place a new parking lot. The new parking lot is critical for future Greek Festivals and parishioner parking since military base access each Sunday is not guaranteed. As a community, we have dedicated so many man-hours and resources towards making the festival a sensational event. We must secure its success for 2025 and beyond.

Currently, we are short of our Phase 2 goal of 193 participants (~80% of parishioners) and $245,000.

You may recall from my last communication mentioning that one of our faithful families used money from their own retirement fund to donate, another family is foregoing a vacation in 2024, a young parishioner donated $30,000 to this initiative, and there are many others making a sacrifice. I am humbled and amazed by this level of giving for God’s Church! I also realize so many people have given so much of their time, talent, and treasure already to our expansion project.

We now need to stretch a little more to complete what we’ve so lovingly and diligently started.

We currently have 94 parishioner families who have committed $155,252, which is generous but short of our goal. Please look at the table below and determine the amount that you can commit to today! If you can contribute to our Phase 2 initiative, we ask that you submit the pledge form ASAP and fulfill your commitment by June 1. As you can see, this initiative is very attainable if we are able to get 80% of parishioners to participate, and you can use the information below as a guide to determine your pledge amount. Make it a part of your Lenten journey to Pascha this year. Your commitment helps build the future of our Church.

While living in Houston before moving to Austin over 27 years ago, I remember Fr. Lou Christopoulos, the Proestamenos of Annunciation Cathedral (currently Chancellor of our Denver Diocese) gave a sermon during our expansion project. I remember he stressed that no matter what the challenge, we must complete what we were doing for the glory and honor of God. Now, his words come back to me since we are SO VERY close to finishing this project. I implore you that we come together as a Church family and give generously to see this Phase 2 through to completion. As always, I thank you so very much for all that you have done and continue to do for our beloved Church. Please don’t hesitate to contact me if you have questions, and please give to this project as you always have, with a generous and cheerful heart. Have a blessed Great Lent.

In Christ’s Love,
